NOTICE

Dear Parents, Guardians, Students and All Concerned,

The world at present is passing through an unprecedented phase due to the outbreak of the Covind-19 pandemic which has claimed thousands of lives. Our country too is facing a very volatile situation. At this hour of crisis, St. Stephen's School, Dum Dum in view of Government advisories shall remain closed till 10th June 2020.

We do know and appreciate your concern for your child's academic enrichment.

The Annual Results (2019-2020) for all classes will be published online within this week. The school remains committed to the Academic Progress of every student and is coordinating on all fronts to organize online classes such that the teaching learning process remains unobstructed. We hope for a positive development on this front.

Meanwhile, efforts are being to distribute the syllabus, Projects / Assignments and Study Materials for all classes through WhatsApp or other medium shortly.

Kindly bear with us. Your child's holistic development is our primary concern and your support at this juncture is earnestly hoped for. We pray for the good health and safety of everyone.

Regards,

School Management
