NOTICE

This is to inform all concerned that the school authorities have been compelled to raise the school fees, i.e., monthly fees and other charges (to the level of 20% hike) for the new academic year session 2023-2024.

Please take note St. Stephens' School, Dum Dum is an institute of excellence and it is totally an un-aided private Christian minority school. It is stated in this regard the said fact is known to all. It is further stated in this regard that the school authorities in order to impart quality education have to pay salary to the teachers, staffs and others in order to maintain a parity with the prescribed norms by the competent authority. It is further stated that in order to maintain quality education the school authorities have to spend huge expenditure and the expenditure is increasing day by day. In view of such fact the school authorities have decided to increase the school fees to the level of 20%.

In this respect, it is requested that any person/ parents/ guardian unable to pay the increased school fees on and from the session 2023-2024, (starting from April 2023), may take admission of their child in any other school in the new upcoming session.

In this respect all concerned is also informed that the school management will not tolerate any type of nuisance / indiscipline created by any person with regard to the payment of school fees. It is further clarified that the school authorities shall take strong action including legal action if any type of nuisance is created inside the school. The school authorities shall also take strong measures against such persons who are defaulters in paying school fees.

This is for information to all concerned.

SCHOOL AUTHORITIES,
ST. STEPHENS' SCHOOL, DUM DUM.
